A Treasury Of Hadith: A Commentary On Nawawi's Selection Of Prophetic Traditions (Treasury In Islamic Thought And Civilization)

Synopsis

Imam Nawawi's collection of forty two hadith brings together some of the most important and pivotal Prophetic traditions. Each tradition encapsulates a great rule of the religion of Islam, described by Islamic religious scholars as an "axis" in Islam. The commentary of the great hadith master Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Daqiq al-'Id is simple but erudite. Mokrane Guezzou is a well-known translator of over ten works including the Qur'an commentary Wahidi's Asbab al-Nuzul. Ibn Daqiq al-'Id (d.1302) is accounted as one of Islam's great scholars in the fundamentals of Islamic law and belief. Imam Nawawi (1233-77) was an authority on hadith and a biographer, lexicologist, and Sufi.

Customer Reviews

It is not difficult to find editions of Imam Nawawi's Forty Hadiths. What this little book offers is excellent translation by a distinguished translator of classical texts; readable voweled Arabic texts of the hadiths; and an excellent classical commentary by a 12th-century Shafi'i mujtahid imam. Plus it fits in your pocket. This is an excellent antidote to amateur commentaries like Zarabozo's, and a nice complement to Abdassamad Clarke's "Complete Forty Hadith", which includes Imam Nawawi's own commentary.

Very pleased with this little book.

Thanks

Eloquent, concise, invaluable. A treasury of wisdom into the consciousness of Allah's Messenger and how it codified the sciences of Islam.
