Bhagavad Gita: In The Light Of Kashmir Shaivism (Lakshmanjoo Academy Book Series)

Synopsis

Bhagavad Gita: In the Light of Kashmir Shaivism Features/Benefits: • Includes free downloadable audio of original lectures. • Bhagavad Gita means The Song of God. It is a 700-verse Hindu scripture from the epic Mahabharata. • This is one of the most important of all Hindu scriptures. • This translation, as seen through the lenses of Kashmir Shaivism by the great Master Swami Lakshmanjoo, teaches that we ourselves are warriors in a great battle for liberation. This treasure of knowledge was one of the last works by Swami Lakshmanjoo. He said, "It was a new revelation of the supreme secrets, hidden in the Kashmiri recension of the Bhagavad Gita." • Based on Abhinavagupta's commentary of the Gitarthasamgraha, "The Essence of the Gita", Swamiji declared that, "this revelation was initiated by his direct experience of the state of Universal God Consciousness. Here Swamiji reveals the unique and liberating teaching of Kashmir Shaivism which proclaims; "Freedom from all our miseries, as Abhinavagupta boldly declares, can neither be obtained through renunciation of the world, nor by hatred of the world, but by experiencing the presence of God everywhere." At last, the secret and profound meaning of the Bhagavad Gita "The Lord's Song" is being made available for the spiritual illumination of all humankind.

In the deep Jungles of India flow streams of immortality waiting for the seeker. What we have in the West is a distillation of the high civilisation of India which died long ago. In Kashmir, there is an echo of the ancient wisdom. In Kashmire they teach a form of advaita different from the advaita exported to the West. Many in spirituality argue that because everything is illusion then the world is a disgusting maya. They say that to be a sense slave is to be trapped and that the slave so must reject the sense world like characters in the Matrix. Prabhupadha, Shankara, Ramana Maharshi, Ramakant Maharaj, Ranjit Maharaj, Nisargadatta Maharaj, all say that the body itself is sh't! This position leads to an advaita trap. The world is flattened, gone existence! the man wants to become a living corpse to reach God. But surely there is a grand aesthetic in this illusion? How about the gothic cathedral, classical music, or a beautiful naked blond virgin? Surely we can't say the music of J.S. Bach is sh't or illusion and has no otherworldly quality? Professor Steve Pinker calls the music of Bach 'auditory cheese cake'. So if we accept the advaita position like sheep, we accept Pinker's crude reducing of J.S. Bach to a machinery of rusty matter! Surely there is a transcendental, non reducible power in J.S. Bach? Arthur Schopenhauer argued that J.S. Bach is Brahman! I challenge you to listen to his music in a cathedral like they used to in olden times. We listen wrong. The logical genius, Kurt Godel, somewhat of a mystic, argued for the transcendental in mathematics and art and even the sense world. So maybe Freud was half right when he elevated the orgasm to the meaning of life?
