Florida Crime Writers: 24 Interviews

Synopsis

This book examines 24 crime novelists who set their work in the Sunshine State. From James W. Hall's Under Cover of Daylight in the Florida Keys, to Barbara Parker's Suspicion of Betrayal in Miami to Tim Dorsey's Florida Roadkill at Cape Canaveral and Tampa, these writers and their works span all of Florida's 67 counties. A biographical sketch of each author precedes an interview by a critic who has immersed him- or herself in the novelist's works, producing interview-essays of noteworthy perception and insight.

Customer Reviews

I'm working on a Sunshine Noir discussion group with my local library and this is an indispensable text. Most of the essays are excellent and the authors well chosen. Glassman's book 'Crime Fiction and Film in the Sunshine State' is also useful.

Good selection of authors and great reviewers, too. A good introduction to new authors. I want to read more by some authors I'd never heard of and more by the reviewers, too. Always something to look forward to.
